

My Trail Tales Notebook

This Notebook Belongs To:

What is Folklore?

A large writing area with rounded corners, featuring multiple sets of horizontal lines for text. Each set consists of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line, typical of primary school handwriting paper.

What is Folklore?

Stories ~ Songs ~ Legends

List some folklore stories, folk songs, or historical legends from your own state or part of the country.

Empty rounded rectangular box for writing.

Empty rounded rectangular box for writing.

Empty rounded rectangular box for writing.

Empty rounded rectangular box for writing.

Stories ~ Songs ~ Legends

List some folklore stories, folk songs, or historical legends from your own state or part of the country. Explain briefly about each.

Blank rectangular box for writing a response.

Blank rectangular box for writing a response.

Blank rectangular box for writing a response.

Tall Tales

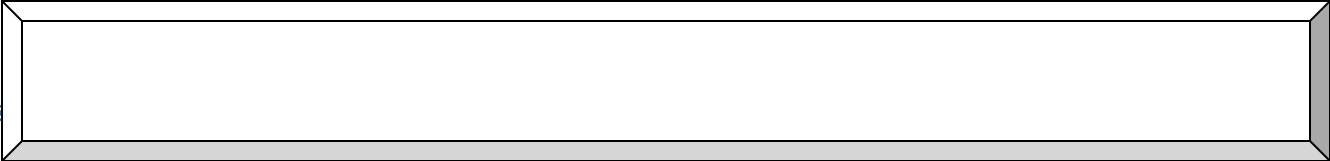

Name at least five stories about American folklore. Point out on the United States map where they happened.

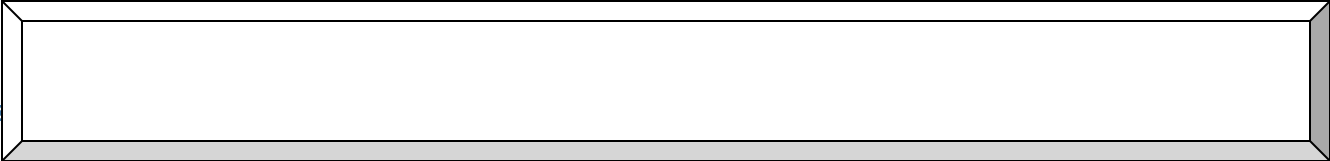

Read a tall tale and retell it in your own words.

A large rounded rectangular area with a red border and horizontal lines for writing. The area is designed for students to retell a tall tale in their own words. It contains 18 horizontal lines for writing.

Read a tall tale and retell it in your own words.

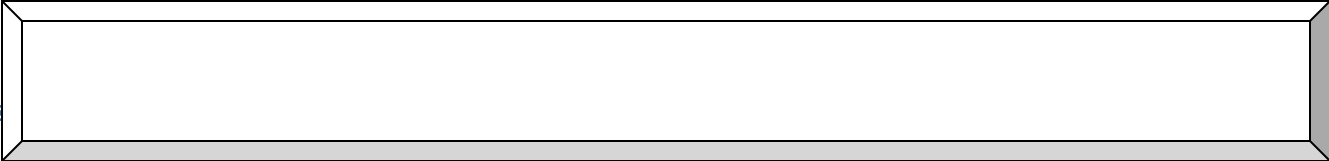

The writing area is enclosed in a red border with rounded corners. On the right side, there is a rectangular box. The rest of the area is filled with horizontal lines for writing.

Read a tall tale and retell it in your own words.

Read a tall tale and retell it in your own words.

Read a tall tale and retell it in your own words.